Joan is an open-minded, passionate advocate attached to our Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department, with proficiency in Employment and Labour Relations Law, Commercial Law, Civil Litigation, Debt Recovery, Environment and Land Law, Administrative Law and Intellectual Property Law.

Joan is a self-confessed bookworm who loves to read thrillers from James Patterson and she effusively agrees that this habit inspires her in her pursuit of justice. A double degree holder in Arts and Law, Joan is a multi-faceted advocate who has been involved in a variety of cases putting her natural zeal and intensity to work.

She is willful and does not easily accept defeat, a trait that keeps her clients coming back to her to solve their legal conundrums, always looking to flex her mental acuity, she is an accomplished board games fan and she is thus definitely the lawyer you want fighting your corner.

An avid outdoor enthusiast, she likes to hike, picnics and above all as she puts it, she loves to cook and sample different meat variations. She is wildly passionate about investments and sees her future in combining this love with her affinity for the law.
