

Meet Kelvin

Partner in Charge of Dispute Resolution and Litigation

Kelvin O. Mbogo

PARTNER

kelvin.mbogo@robsonharris.com
+254 707 237 708

Kelvin has extensive experience in the resolution of disputes arising out of a myriad of areas including procurement, environment and land, employment and labour law, family law matters including succession and probate, divorce and child maintenance matters, constitutional law matters & judicial review, intellectual property law and arbitration on commercial disputes. He is also a Legal Auditor.

While he has exemplarily handled matters before various Boards, Tribunals, Subordinate Courts, High Court, Court of Appeal as well as the Supreme Court and dedicates significant amount of time to attend to the Client's needs, Kelvin enjoys sports majorly football and is an avid reader of literature.

Matters Handled

- Represented a State Corporation in the National Environmental Tribunal wherein the Appellant challenged the revocation of a Special Use License for the collection of wind energy and subsequent generation of electricity by the said State Corporation, which project was valued at $ 70 Million USD.
- Represented a State Corporation in a claim for breach of contract where the value of claim was at a sum of about Kshs. 14 billion.
- Conducted due diligence and legal audit for a bank engaged in a merger transaction.
- Successfully represented a Bank in proceedings seeking to stop the Bank from exercising its statutory power of sale arising out of an unregistered Charge and the outstanding loan amount was about Kshs. 97 million.
- Successfully led a team that defended a State Corporation in an employment claim where the Claimant was seeking compensation for alleged unfair termination to the tune of about Kshs. 12 million.
- Successfully defended a State Corporation in review proceedings challenging its procurement process in a tender worth Kshs. 4 Billion.
- Successfully defended a State Corporation in review proceedings challenging a procurement process in a tender worth Kshs. 690,000,000/-.
- Successfully represented a County Government in the Republic of Kenya in a Petition where a housing project worth Kshs. 9 Billion was being challenged.
- Successfully represented a State Corporation where the appointment of a Director-General had been challenged.

Practice areas

Civil Litigation and Commercial Litigation
Alternative Dispute Resolution Corporate Law
Labour and Employment Law
Constitutional and Administrative Law
Public Procurement Law
Intellectual Property Law
Legal Audits and Due Diligence
Governance Audits