

Meet Sharleen

Lawyer, Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department

Sharleen Kihima

LAWYER

sharleen.kihima@robsonharris.com
+254 714 746 404

Sharleen openly admits to having a soft spot for people with legal issues that need to be solved, empathy maketh a good lawyer. She is attached to the Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department where she uses her meticulous drafting skills to best express her client's needs and has qualified negotiation skills in complex disputes which she uses to obtain the best outcomes for her clients.

Sharleen's open-mindedness stands her in good stead in her practice of the law since she is adept in several practice areas including; Civil and Commercial Litigation, Employment Law, Land Law, Banking and Finance Law and Alternative Dispute Resolution.

Sharleen has a deep and fiery passion for tax law and she tends to lean towards acting in cases in this particular practice area. The expressive advocate is an extrovert who loves to attend concerts and hopes to attend a David Guetta concert live just as soon as the pandemic is over.

The dynamic nature of the law is what appeals to this go-getter who believes that there is always a solution to a client's issues and doesn't rest on her laurels waiting for favorable outcomes. Satisfaction of the client is key to why Sharleen became a lawyer and feels deep fulfilment when she garners an agreeable outcome for her clients.

Matters Handled

- Part of the team that represented a leading State Corporation in the National Environmental Tribunal wherein the Appellant challenged the revocation of a Special Use License. The License was for a project worth USD 70 Billion for the collection of wind for wind energy;
- Part of the team that successfully defended a local Bank in a debt recovery suit wherein the Plaintiff sought to stop the Bank from exercising its statutory power of sale over a security worth Kshs. 150 Million;
- Part of the team that represented a major state corporation in the Kenya Nuclear and Energy Board field wherein the Claimant challenged an alleged unlawful termination from employment by the Respondent. The team successfully concluded the matter through a consent agreement; and
- Part of the team that successfully defended a local Bank in a debt recovery suit where the Plaintiff sought to stop the Bank from exercising its statutory power of sale over a security worth Kshs. 180 Million.

Practice areas

Energy Law
Commercial Litigation
Competition Law
Family Law
Pensions Law
Tax Law